To Whom It May Concern:

Living in Pennsylvania and having a second home in Grand County is wonderful, but can also present certain problems. When there is work to be done at my Colorado home, I have to be able to count on the people I hire to be totally trustworthy and dependable. Tim DeLong is just such a person. Tim has worked on my property on various jobs including driveway excavation, decorative stonework, tree removal, clearing brush and burning slash piles.

With each job, Tim has responded promptly and given an accurate estimate of the price and the timeframe in which he would complete the work. Tim has always been very willing to listen to my concepts, but is very good at sharing his own ideas to help come up with the best plan. I appreciate that Tim is cost conscious and that he will use the best and most cost effective materials and design to get the finest end result.

Tim is an all-around good fellow who is extremely pleasant to work with and courteous to a fault. His excellent work speaks for itself. Tim's company provides a wide variety of services. I can strongly recommend him to any who are thinking of employing him.

Sincerely,

Ingrid Serrell
